Library Recommendation Letter

Dear Librarian,

Please enter a subscription to The Objective Standard (print ISSN 1559-1905, online ISSN 1559-1913), which is indexed and abstracted in Columbia International Affairs Online (CIAO), Public Affairs Information Services (PAIS), and Political Science Complete (PSC).

The Objective Standard (TOS) is a quarterly journal of culture and politics written from an Objectivist perspective, Objectivism being Ayn Rand's philosophy of reason, egoism, and laissez-faire capitalism. The journal holds that for every human concern—from personal matters to foreign policy, from the sciences to the arts, from education to legislation—there are demonstrably objective standards by reference to which one can assess what is true or false, good or bad, right or wrong. The purpose of the journal is to analyze and evaluate ideas, trends, events, and policies accordingly.
